VOLUNTEERS RETIRE.

The State Authorities Ready to Take Charge at Johnstown.

A Few Bodies Reward the Efforts of the Searchers.

Gen. Hastings to Issue a Proclamation To-Morrow—The Channel of Streams to Be Cleared First—Progress of the Work at the Cambria Iron Works—The Commissary Departments Operating Systematically—Cost of Providing for the Wants of the Survivors—Trouble Over Chicago's Relief Fund—Order Out of Chaos.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., June 11.—Gen. Hastings was seen to-day and said: "I will issue no proclamation until to-morrow when I take hold. Everything will be done in a thorough manner. I will start in to-morrow morning with about 200 men, and will gradually generalize as I have now. There will be no necessary change in the work, but the men have already employed going to work in the morning. Our first work will be to clear the channel of streams. In the afternoon there will be a great deal of water. I want it understood we want no idle or curious people here. We want no strangers. In fact, want no one in the town who has not got a home here, nor will they be permitted to remain. We probably have everybody who is here work. It is no time for play or pleasure work.

Gen. Wylie said: "It is an unusual undertaking, and people who have not been here before would be inclined to do nothing. In the weather is good it will take sixty days and 2,000 men to get order out of this chaos, and if the weather is bad it will take ninety days at least.

But two bodies had been recovered up to noon to-day, and it is quite likely that after dark many more will be recovered. The bodies are now being taken to the cemetery where they are to be buried.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., June 11.—This is the last day for clearing away the effects of the flood by the civil authorities. To-morrow the State takes hold of the stupendous work of restoring the valley to its condition before the flood and all work done after to-day will be under the supervision of Adjutant-General Hastings.

The volunteers who have been utilized will have the object of restoring order will have finished their self-imposed task to-day.

After twelve days of almost superhuman work by the army of volunteers, the State will assume its proper place in the work and do what every citizen of this Commonwealth has known for days to be its duty. The weary and dreary succession of rainy days since the flood continues, and the day broke amidst a drizzling rain, wreck and ruin over all. With but a single exception every day here since the deluge has opened with rain, but while the rain has made the work more disagreeable it has had some good results. But for the almost constant rains the river at this time would have become a torrent, too fast to be crossed in safety, and the debris would have been thrown into the river. The continued full stream has rendered the work of getting the wreckage away from the stone bridge much less arduous and much more speedy. Again the rain has seemed to cool the air and temper the hot rays of a June sun. Had there been such weather as prevailed yesterday afternoon, it is believed that it would have been impossible to continue the work of searching for the dead. Even as it is, the fumes arising from the decomposing bodies of persons and animals are most offensive and

AT THE END OF OVERPOWERING.

No number can be given of the dead carried off by the flood, but the number is believed to be between 1,000 and 1,500. The search for men searching for the dead carries quantities of disinfectants and when a body is located the vicinity is thoroughly saturated with disinfectant. By this means the work, which otherwise would be unbearable, is less offensive. The horror of the situation has not been diminished, but rather grows. The search for the dead continues and in all sections and directions the dead are being found. Numbers of bodies are now coming to the surface of the waters and those whose work has made them competent judges say as many more bodies as have been found are lying somewhere. In many unexpected places bodies are hourly being found, and where there will be no human being found, and as BERLIN, June 11.—The Government has not told the press authorities that it cannot possibly accept the proposal now made for the settlement of the questions raised by the expulsion from Switzerland of Herr Wolgemuth, the German Police Inspector, who was charged with bribing a Swiss to act as agent provocateur. NEW YORK, June 11.—On the City Hall yesterday $16,613 was subscribed which brings the total contributions in New York to nearly half a million dollars. Half a dozen benefits have been arranged for the good cause.

NEW YORK, June 11.—Contributions to the Conemaugh Valley Relief Fund are coming into the Mayor's office very slowly to-day. From the time of the bankruptcy on June 10 to-day, the committee had received $6,120. The total amount so far received is $36,312. The amount of money sent in by the public had its hands full sending packages of clothing to the sufferers. Brooklyn has raised $70,000.

A Horrible Double Murder.

LEBANON, N. H., June 11.—A horrible double murder was committed near Meriden early this morning. Lucian Freeman with an ax killed his mother, Mrs. Daniel Freeman, and also John Morgan. The murderer took to the woods, but has now been captured.

place gives way. Men have been at work day and night for over a week endeavoring to extricate this enormous mass, but with slow progress. If it suddenly collapses a miniature Johnstown disaster is feared. Forwarders doing business at the canal boat fear that the dam between the two cities of Houghtaling and the St. Louis dam, are in a dangerous state. The mud forming the dams has been increased by rain. The water has been increasing owing to its rising. If these dams give way a large portion of the business part of this city will be submerged.

BERLIN.

BERLIN, June 11.—The marriage of the Duke of Portland to Miss Dallas-Yorke took place to-day. The Bishop of Lincoln officiated, assisted by the Rev. John Stora, Rector of St. Peter's, and the Rev. John Butterwick, the Duke's chaplain. The church was filled with prominent members of the aristocracy. The wedding presents, which were very numerous, included gifts from the Prince and Princess of Wales and Lord Salisbury.

London Gossip.

Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch.

NEARLY ESCAPED.

Exciting Chase of a Work-House Prisoner by One of the Guard.

For some time past a gang of Work-house prisoners has been employed at grading the streets in the vicinity of Congress and Lynch streets. Yesterday afternoon, while one of the men made a successful attempt to escape and all succeeded. Mounted on one of the loaded wagons used in the construction he was riding at full speed, and, when he reached the guard, dashed up to him, and, doubtless, would have been captured if the guard had not been mounted. The prisoner escaped with alacrity and interest, and, as he did not stop him, and had it not been for timely assistance, he would have been successful.

THE PRINCE ALBERT VICTOR'S INDIAN VISIT.

Prince Albert Victor's Indian visit, announced for next winter, will be good business.

THE PRINCE OF WALES.

The Prince of Wales, visiting the Paris Exhibition yesterday was diplomatic, and will tend to remove the friction caused by royalty's withdrawal from participation. The Prince represents the President of the Devonshire Industrial Committee. All religions will be represented. He will appoint a commission to inquire into the condition of India, which is due to Cardinal Manning, who diverted the enthusiasm into a practical channel.

THE CO-OPERATIVE CONGRESS.

The Co-operative Congress is in session at Ipswich. The presidential address is hopeful, but dull.

A TERRIFIC SCANDAL.

The great trial scandal in the Courts of Justice is a great novelty. James Caldwell, Prince Saltstoff and the Earl of March are sitting as judges. It is likely to last some time.

THE CLARISSACRE EVICTIONS.

Serious trouble is apprehended on Clarissa's Galway estate. Fifty-two families are to be evicted from their homes in the vicinity of the Cascades. The Clarissacre is determined to evict. There is danger that some desperate peasants may assault a social controversy.

Ireland.

At the reception of the American engineers at Leamington yesterday one of the reports of the Atlantic and the Pacific telegraphs on the surface of the ocean were like shuttles which moved backwards and forwards and which crossed each other.

The telegraph had added immensely to the value of the American engineer. Nothing but genuine admiration of American achievements was entertained by those great solitaires. Those Englishmen who could appreciate more than consider the enormous energy that had brought the American continent under the dominion and control of England, were few indeed. The Americans must have admired the enormous American prowess and concentrated force which had dominated the powers of nature.

LEGAL AND OFFICE SALES

SAMUEL PERRY'S ESTATE CLOSED OUT AT AUCTION BY SPECIAL COMMISSIONER.

Marcus Bernheimer Pays $10,000 for Nos. 709 and 711 North Main—Low Prices for Other East End Parcels of the Perry Property—Christy Avenue Improvements—F. J. Cunningham sells at $704.50 a Foot—Other Real Estate Items.

Another fine commercial building, for which plans are now being prepared, is to be erected on Christy avenue. It is to be a seven-story fire-proof structure with a frontage of 115 feet nine inches on the east line of Eighth and fronting forty-four feet on the south side of Christy avenue. There is a fifteen-foot alley on the south line of the premises, and a few days since workmen were excavating there and had marked out a staircase thirty-nine feet nine inches in depth, with a flight of forty-four feet on the south side of the alley, when W. H. Thompson was preparing to erect a business house.

Mr. Thompson, whereby it appears that Mr. Cunningham has made a profit of $9,500 in less than fifteen months. This transaction also shows the enhancing value of Christy avenue property, for it has not been much more than two years since Mr. Thompson offered and would have purchased the same premises for $14,500 but it was not then that it was cut off from his little Eighth street property by a three-foot wide alley, which interested him.

At this time, when he had obtained the title, he offered to sell the property to Mr. Thompson for $10,000, but he refused.

By the end of the month, when he had obtained the title, he offered to sell the property to Mr. Thompson for $10,000, but he refused.

In keeping with the order of the court, the sale was held on June 12, 1889, but the evening before that date he left the city. On his return she approached him and asked him to make his promise good and he refused.

She is still unmarried and says by reason of Manewal's false promises she has been damaged in the sum of $9,500.

Mr. Thompson, who is the first man to have sold his property to her, has agreed to pay her $10,000, and she has accepted it.

Mr. Thompson, who is the first man to have sold his property to her, has agreed to pay her $10,000, and she has accepted it.

The next offered was the building numbered 709 and 711, a part of one other contiguous building, which had been divided and separated when it was built, and fronting on Christy avenue.

It is a two-story house, Nos. 1 and 3 Main street, having a frontage of sixteen feet and rent for $80 a month. They were sold to L. Garvey for $10,000.

Mr. Garvey paid $10,000 for the property, and it was then sold to Kalmie & Bro. for $10,000.

George Lang bought 44 feet on the south side between Seventh and Eighth for $10,000 per foot, and in addition paid $1,000 for the property on the north side.

Chas. Cunnings, in April of last year, paid $18,000 for the old premises, 44x16, numbered 81 and 83, and fronting on Christy avenue.

He says he paid $18,000 for the property, and it was then sold to Kalmie & Bro. for $15,000.

These various bids aggregated $15,025 and the property was sold to F. J. Cunningham for $15,000.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

MATT G. REYNOLDS' EARLY MORNING CALL AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

The St. Louis Attorney and the President talk politics and indulge in compliments.—The Missouri Office-Seeking Contingent—Probable Changes in the Navy—The President's Deer Park Visit.

By Telegraph to the POST-DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 11.—The first among the callers upon the President this morning was Hon. Matt G. Reynolds of St. Louis, who was the companion of Secretary Noble. The President was very cordial in his greeting, and expressed his admiration for the course Mr. Reynolds had adopted after being defeated in the appointment for United States District Attorney. Mr. Reynolds said to him that he was not one of the kind who, after defeat held his head under water, but that he went right ahead, did not stop and turn back to hold a post mortem; that in failing to nominate him for the place he sought, he was of the opinion the President had done the best thing he could for him. Mr. Harrison said that he was glad Mr. Reynolds felt that way, that he acknowledged the perfect right of the President to nominate for office, but that he should not be charged with having appointed as all who applied could not be provided for. As to the removal of Democrats, Mr. Reynolds ventured to remark that it should be done through the medium of the president, not through the Senate. He said that in time he would be in a position to speak more fully on the subject.

Contractor Lewis, who has charge of the new school building at St. Louis, claims that he will have the business ready for occupancy by the first of the scholastic year.

Mary Wundt was arrested this morning upon warrant issued at the instance of John A. Allen, attorney of the Circuit, who charges her with obsequious conduct.

Mr. H. D. Sexton, the real estate agent, who addressed the old Young people, situated on St. Louis avenue, and lately occupied by the lamented Dr. Jennings, to Mrs. William McCrevey.

While Fred Meiz was filling bottles yesterday in the new school building, one of them exploded, lacerating his left wrist. Dr. Wiggin dressed the wound and pronounced it not dangerous.

Local Assembly reported that the President of the East St. Louis Water Co., Mr. Kohn, will soon arrive and investigate his mains and pumping stations, with a view to the further extension of the system.

Local Assembly No. 233, K. of L., held an open meeting last night at Laund's Hall, and was addressed by Michael J. Hatchett and Thomas G. St. John. A very large gathering attended. Several new applications for membership were received.

William P. Sheldon of St. Clair County, Mo., is here looking after the office of Marshal for the Western District. He came from St. Louis, from Marion, Pontiac and two-thirds of the members of the Missouri Legislature.

It is expected that Gen. Shields will do something to advance Capt. Jones of Kansas City from the minor place he holds in the Interior Department to another one. Maj. Clements of Missouri and others have called upon Gen. Shields to urge this.

The Navy Department.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 11.—The report of a movement to relieve Admiral Bancroft Gherardi of the command of the North Atlantic Squadron and order Commodore Walker in his place, is not given much credence in naval circles in this city. Admiral Gherardi was detailed to the command of the Norfolk Naval Yard last summer, and the name of Gen. Adm. Farragut was ordered to the North Atlantic Squadron. He was the senior officer on the yard, and was first available for duty. His rank had been given only a little over four months, and naval officers in this country, who have the same rank, are being detached. Commodore Walker is now serving his second term as chief of the Bureau of Navigation and Office of Decrees, and his time has not yet come to go off the yard. His name has been frequently mentioned in connection with the command of the Bureau, in place of the Chicago, which will undoubtably be sent to Europe as flagship, in the event of the Lancaster, ordered to arrive in New York July 1; but this is denied. Commodore Walker is well known that Secretary Tracy has the highest opinion of Commodore Walker, and he regards him as a valuable man.

His successor has been frequently discussed by naval officers, but those in position to know say he will be recommissioned for another term of duty as chief of the bureau. There is nothing in the law to prevent a third term should the President so desire.

The President has the power to make a general order to the Navy to desire to make the appointment. Those who are generally well posted on naval affairs say that the Bureau of Ordnance is in a state of confusion, and that the Bureau of Ordnance, who is serving his second term, and whose time will expire on the 30th inst., will also be commissioned for another term.

GOVERNMENT PROPERTY.

Secretary Tracy has prepared a list of instructions regarding the disposition of Government property at the navy yards under the new system of navy accounts taking effect July 1. The list of articles to be turned over to the Bureau of Ordnance, including only the approval of the commandant of each yard. The Bureau of Equipment can take up the work of the Bureau of Ordnance, and in return the construction people will take coal and rope from the equipment bureaus.

HARD WORK.

The multiplicity of vouchers necessary made it hard for the accounting officers of the Treasury, who had to count and settle all itemized accounts. Before any article settled on board ship can now be finally turned over to the Bureau of Ordnance, a ratification is required, with thirty-six signatures, must be obtained. The commanding officers and the treasurers who have signed the documents, it appears, since the market has been expanded as to the number of additional labor, and consequently it is not looked upon with favor by the Bureau of Ordnance. The Bureau of Ordnance are in a state of chaos. It is simply impossible to know the exact state of any article or part of an article, and money has been expended as to the construction of a new vessel or in repairing an old one. The order in question has now been prepared by the Bureau of Ordnance, and submitted to Secretary Tracy for his signature. Under the new state of things it is necessary to have the signatures transferred to another on requisition, needing only the approval of the commandant of each yard. The Bureau of Equipment can take up the work of the Bureau of Ordnance, and in return the construction people will take coal and rope from the equipment bureaus.

Heavy Sales of West Granite—Stocks Sold and Prices Obtained.

There was a general decline in quotations this morning and the aggregate sales were large, although but few properties were ex-tensively dealt in.

The most marked feature of the day was the heavy trading in West Granite stocks. Sales have been made since the Granite Mountain syndicate completed the purchase of the property, and the price, considerably above the amount of stock on the market, was very well sustained.

Trading opened at $60, and 400 shares were traded at 75¢, at which 200 shares were disposed of.

At 76¢ there was a large amount of additional work, and consequently it is not looked upon with favor by the Bureau of Ordnance. The Bureau of Ordnance are in a state of chaos.

BOUGHT FOR A WEAPON.

THE HEISLER ELECTRIC LIGHT CO. TO PROTECT THE GAS CONSOLIDATION.

A Philadelphia Syndicate Develops as the Head of the Hollins Combination in Buying Out Mr. Heisler—The Movement Caused by Fear of the Operations of the Missouri Co.

MR. W. H. THOMPSON,
President of the Gas Trust, of each of the trust companies and of the Bank of Commerce, was a source of much information, but it was found that he had left the city Monday evening to sail for Europe on a three-months' vacation. His return is not expected until next month. He is reported to be in good health, and some time ago it was expected he would be compelled to resign from his business connections. His condition improved, however, and he was enabled to go into the negotiations of the Samoan attack upon the German landing party last December is the cause of the not-unreasonable delay at the State Department in authorizing our Commissioners at Berlin to affix their signatures to the treaties. This question is still under careful consideration by the Secretary and by the President, who is giving his personal attention to it. They have no wish to submit the Administration to either partisan or popular criticism, or to burden their friends in the Senate with the defense of their action, when the treaty shall go to that body for ratification, by accepting even the naked principle of indemnity as long as there is a reasonable prospect that Germany, for the sake of lasting peace and good neighborhood, may be induced to waive what is now but a matter of sentiment. In point of fact, our Government does not admit that the case is one where the German Government should either ask or expect indemnity, either in substance or upon principle. The State Department's view is that the German aggression upon the Samoan people, all conducted by and under the official color of the German consulate and naval squadron, constituted a state of quasi war between Germany and Samoa and justified the chieftain, Mataafa, in considering the conduct of the German navy as at Fagali.

Following is the list of the Southern and Western cadets and in the order in which they graduated: 1. Albert M. Darnell, Iowa; 2. George E. Flagg, New York; 3. John C. Alabama; 5. Wm. W. Harts, Illinois; 6. Robert McGregor, Michigan; 7. Edmund M. McNamee, Ohio; 8. John C. Moore, Ohio; 14. Walter A. Beitel, Ohio; 15. Edw. Davi H. Sydenham, Nebraska; 16. Benjamin Johnson, Mississippi; 17. Norc. R. Barnes, Maryland; 18. Edward Hartman, Michigan; 20. James McGlacklin, Wisconsin; 24. Charles D. Rhodes, Ohio; 25. John J. K. Miller, Ohio; 26. Wm. H. Piper, Idaho; 30. Eddie G. Winslow, Tennessee; 32. Ulysses G. Kemp, Ohio; 36. Edward Phillips, Texas; 37. John R. M. Taylor, Florida; 38. George W. Kirkman, Illinois; 39. F. E. Lachey, Michigan; 40. Sidney A. Clinton, Ohio; 41. Frank W. Williams, Wisconsin; 42. John Graves, Texas; 43. Frank D. Webster, Mississippi; 44. Joseph D. Leitch, Nebraska; 45. John C. Hart, Illinois; 46. James B. North, Illinois; 47. John C. North, Illinois; 48. John C. North, Illinois.

The result has been that every working day since the 4th of March has been the date of some new wage reduction or strike in the protected industries. Miners of iron and coal, metal workers, operatives in woolen, cotton and silk mills and in nearly all the industries in which wages were said to depend on the maintenance of the present tariff, have had their wages reduced 10, 20 or 30 per cent or have been forced into idleness. Tariff changes by arbitrary executive rulings and all other administrative expedients have failed to remedy the evils of existing legislation; the surplus keeps on increasing and we do industrial disturbances and business embarrassments.

Yet we are told that Congress is to be convened in October not to remedy these evils, but to strengthen by purely partisan action the grip of the party that is bound by compact with boodle-raisers to maintain them. It is not to cut down taxes, but to throw tax reducers out of Congress, increase the majority in favor of high taxation and surplus squandering and reduce the minority to a mere ciphers by an arbitrary change of the rules.

Such partisan work will not pay. The minority to be put down represented in the last election a plurality of nearly one hundred thousand in the popular vote, and high taxes and huge appropriations cannot make falling wages popular.

THIS INFLUENCE THAT IS FRAUD
by the companies furnishing gas as an illuminant is a potent factor in politics. They at first laughed at the talk of electricity competing with gas as a general illuminant, and have not believed that the Missouri Co. could furnish an electric illuminant light for anything like what gas costs at $1.50 per 1,000 cubic feet.

These minds, however, are being won over to this fact. The managers of the Missouri have gone ahead perfecting their plans for publicizing or taking a position which would throw them open to the charge of braggadocio. At the same time they have energetically increased the output of gas in the West End particularly, to cut off their gas and use the new light, telling them at the same time that they can furnish gas at $1.50 per 1,000 cubic feet.

They also point out the fact that they cannot by an increase of pressure do what the gas companies can, and contrast this to the fact that gas can, by this increase of pressure, be sold at $1.50 per 1,000 cubic feet.

All this has come to the knowledge of the Missouri syndicate and they have determined upon a plan.

HEISLER COMPANY AS A WEAPON.

As a Post-DISPATCH reporter was informed to-day the purchase of the Heisler plant and its equipment has been completed. The Heisler company has a capital of $200,000 and an investment of something more than that, but the price paid for the plant is $75,000. A reporter called at the Heisler's works on South Seventh street, and after a conference with the owners found Mr. Heisler out of the city, but he has been expected home for three days now.

Mr. O'Brien, speaking for him, "is that different parties have been in negotiation with Mr. Heisler to buy his plant, but he does not know who he is talking about. He owns nearly all of the stock of the company, and is a man who generally keeps his things to himself. We are here to manage things, particularly, and he relies upon us to do that. He owns so much of the stock that he can do as he pleases with it."

"You know of negotiations, but as to any sale?"

No, we know only that Mr. Heisler is detained in the East by very important business.

Mr. Heisler has now about four different companies in the United States and is erecting several more plants, one in Baltimore and others at different points in New England. The Heisler company is firmly interested, but in the North, he has supplied the Eastern market with the apparatus and the globes, giving the company the use of his services, and royal to the city, he alone knows. He owns nearly all of the stock of the company, and is a man who generally keeps his things to himself.

RAILROAD crossings over common highways at grade have annually killed so many people in the rural districts of New England, in spite of all the precautions and safeguards instituted by law, that press and people are demanding with remarkable unanimity the abolition of all such crossings. Where a much-used railroad track is laid on the surface of a narrow street, crossing a dozen other city thoroughfares at grade, it is not only a constant menace to life but no possible precaution can at all times prevent its murderous work. In permitting the maintenance of public dangers like this, the power of the State is simply counting hundreds and thousands of human lives as mere dross compared with the cost of separate grades at crossings.

CONGRESS IN OCTOBER.

When Congress adjourned without passing any measure to check a dangerous surplus accumulation by cutting down needless and oppressive taxes, the new Administration, confident of its ability to dispose of the surplus, refused to call the new Congress in extra session. Both Houses have become Republican. There was no longer any difference of opinion between them, or between either of them and the President, to excuse inaction. The interests of the tax-payers, the business interests of the masses, were sacrificed to a party exigency or to a party compact with subsidized monopolies, boodle raisers and surplus squanderers.

The result has been that every working day since the 4th of March has been the date of some new wage reduction or strike in the protected industries. Miners of iron and coal, metal workers, operatives in woolen, cotton and silk mills and in nearly all the industries in which wages were said to depend on the maintenance of the present tariff, have had their wages reduced 10, 20 or 30 per cent or have been forced into idleness. or it may be a complete nonentity, the other who has been in negotiation. The prop-erty might have been sold and we would know nothing about it. We are here to manage things, particularly, and he relies upon us to do that. He owns so much of the stock that he can do as he pleases with it."

Mr. Heisler has now about four different companies in the United States and is erecting several more plants, one in Baltimore and others at different points in New England. The Heisler company is firmly interested, but in the North, he has supplied the Eastern market with the apparatus and the globes, giving the company the use of his services, and royal to the city, he alone knows. He owns nearly all of the stock of the company, and is a man who generally keeps his things to himself.

We are here to manage things, particularly, and he relies upon us to do that. He owns so much of the stock that he can do as he pleases with it."

"You know of negotiations, but as to any sale?"

No, we know only that Mr. Heisler is detained in the East by very important business.

BISHOP was killed by the surgeons, yet their action was hasty and unwarranted and a good lesson on the proprieties of post-mortem examinations will not be amiss.

RAILROAD crossings over common highways at grade have annually killed so many people in the rural districts of New England, in spite of all the precautions and safeguards instituted by law, that press and people are demanding with remarkable unanimity the abolition of all such crossings. Where a much-used railroad track is laid on the surface of a narrow street, crossing a dozen other city thoroughfares at grade, it is not only a constant menace to life but no possible precaution can at all times prevent its murderous work. In permitting the maintenance of public dangers like this, the power of the State is simply counting hundreds and thousands of human lives as mere dross compared with the cost of separate grades at crossings.

MR. W. G. STEIGERS Wrote to the Post-DISPATCH, expressing his desire to contract for the river or railroad.

The only object of this was to get a large amount of money to buy a boat. Comprised to this the Heisler could run any distance in the city from its station. Some time ago the Heisler was found at Ogden, Utah, where they are running a circuit twenty-five miles. As to their advantage in selecting a location they can not be expected to be of much power, if advisable, as they are doing in supplying Ottawa, Ill., going to Marseilles, eight miles distant, to buy a boat.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 10.—The POST-DISPATCH correspondent learns authoritatively that the question of nominal indemnity to Germany or none at all—the United States Government's view of the matter—was the cause of the delay in signing the agreement.

TRACTIONS OF THE WEEK.

The "Queen's Lace Handkerchief"—Minstrelsy at the Kensington—"Faust, Jr."

The "Queen's Lace Handkerchief" opened at Uhlig's Cave last night and the company gave a very creditable performance considering the adverse circumstances it had to contend with. The night was raw and chilly. A fire at home was not uncomfortable, and, of course, it could not be expected that many people would attend an open air entertainment. Those who did wore their overcoats and even the ladies walked up and down the aisles to keep themselves warm. The show went through and really enjoyed it. For a first-night production it was well sung. Miss Carrie, Queen of the Gypsies, and Miss Jenny, Queen of the Harlots, were the chief attractions and were greatly enjoyed. The audience laughing in spite of the frigid air. Harold Black and Miss Lotte Gilman were good girls and the company's own ensemble was full and capable. The company did its best to make places of outdoor amusement agreeable to comfort, the entertainment at the Cave will not draw large audiences.

The Kensington Minerals had a better audience to play to last night than might have been expected, though the weather prevented such an attendance as the management had anticipated. The show has been well received and the audience was greatly pleased. The company did its best to make places of outdoor amusement agreeable to comfort, the entertainment at the Cave will not draw large audiences.

One day in the week may be often enough for a sale of remittances in the small stores advertising such sales, but for our mammoth establishment, it does the business and turning over the cash receipts of Dr. Crawford & Co. one day in the week would be totally inadequate for their disposal. For the benefit of those who acquiesce with the fact, we would say that Crawford's has a regularly organized remittance department at the north end of their western boulevard, open for business every day in the week, where remittances can be bought for less money than small stores with one-day-in-the-week sales.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH OF MISSOURI.

The Fourteenth Annual Sunday-School Convention at Carrollton.

By Telegraph to the Post-DISPATCH.

CARROLLTON, Mo., June 11.—The Fourteenth Annual Sunday-school Convention of the Christian Church of Missouri assembled in the Baptist Church of this city at 8 o'clock last evening. The auditorium and gallery of the immense building were crowded before the convention was called to order. A large crowd of people were gathered outside, and a few hours meeting was held at the Christian Church, where the Rev. Simpson Ely preached an excellent sermon. After President Davis of Sedalia had called the convention to order, a song service of fifteen minutes was held under the direction of J. H. Hindlin, of Cincinnati, O., following which was the convention sermon by Elder R. C. Chapman, of Sedalia. On returning at 8 o'clock, a meeting in a room of people's prayer meeting, lasting one hour, was held, after which Mr. Ralph Lorier of this city, Mr. W. H. McDaniel, of Sedalia, and President Davis of Sedalia responded. The various committees were appointed, and Treasurer Dr. D. L. Reid, of Sedalia, took charge of the association to be in the most prominent position since its organization. The remainder of the morning session was devoted to hearing reports from the various speakers, Dr. W. McQuarry, T. P. Reid and J. H. Furnish. There are about seven hundred delegates in the city and five hundred in the surrounding country on the trains. The hotels are full and nearly every private family has one or more guests. No trouble, however, is anticipated by the committee in handing the guests.
